

schoolhouse naturals

When we introduced this line in early 2008, we weren't sure if people would want no-finish toys. In the wake of the lead problems, we thought it would be worth a try. It turns out you agreed! We have expanded this line of toys with no chemical coatings or printing. Still primarily made from hard maple. On the few items with an oil finish option, we have changed to a non-nut based natural oil finish.
