

patemm[®]

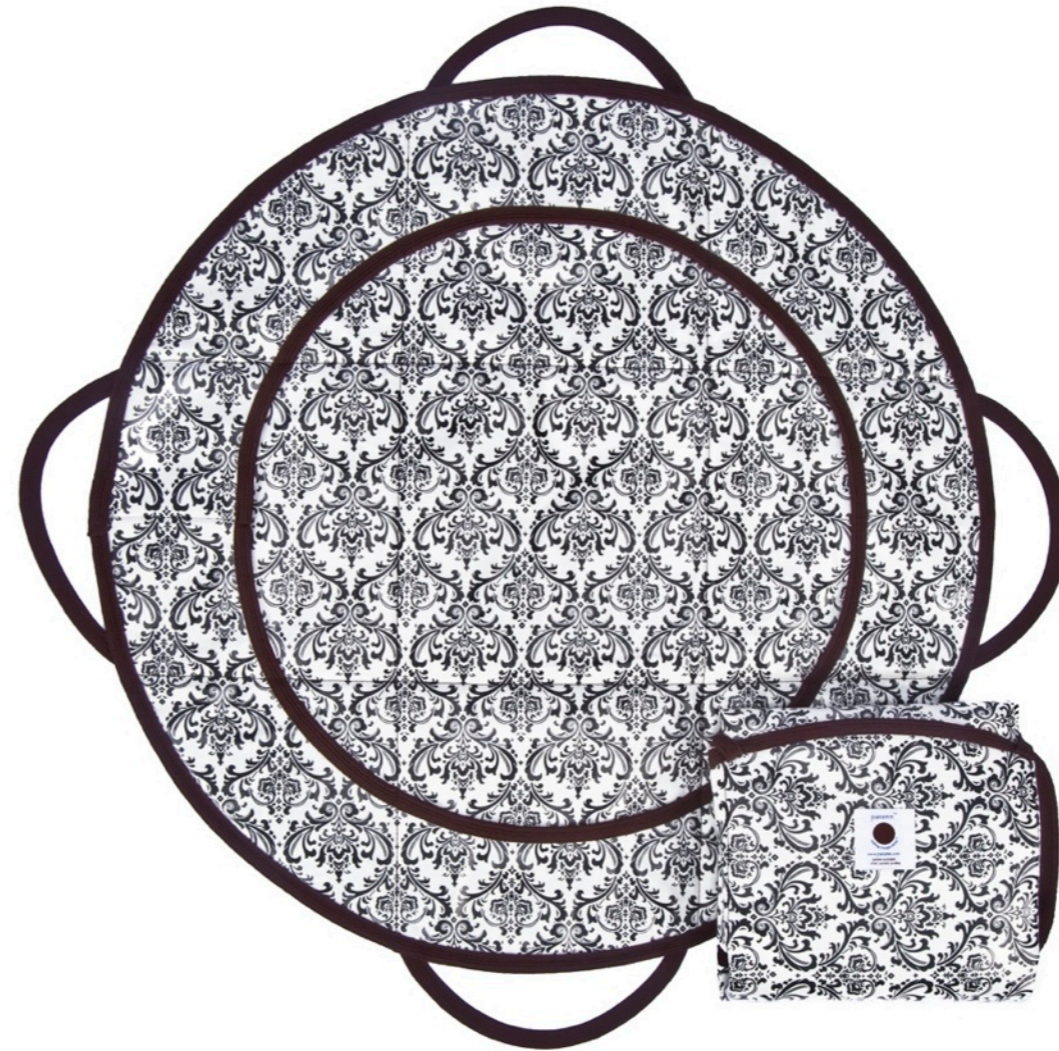

Manhattan Momma patemm changing pad

patemm[®] pad—a smart, stylish and practical alternative to the diaper bag—is a patented, award-winning design that makes changing your little one quick and simple. The round design and the cleverly-placed inside pockets accommodates squirmy infants and serves as a sleek, all-in-one carrier for diapers, wipes, and even a change of clothes.

The mom-invented patemm[®] pads have received national and international acclaim by parents, caretakers, and the media and has truly become an essential baby item.

patemm[®] pads have been featured in PEOPLE, Real Simple, Parents, The Washington Post, Life & Style, The SF Chronicle, DailyCandy Kids, The Today Show, and ABC's The View. The inventor, Grace Welch has appeared on The Oprah Winfrey Show, The Big Idea with Donny Deutsch and CBS news, Evening Magazine, and A View From The Bay.

- Received coveted Green Parents' List Check Mark
- received Mom's Best Award
- parent and laboratory tested and approved
- PVC, lead, phthalate, BPA, latex, and formaldehyde-FREE
- PROUDLY MADE IN SAN FRANCISCO, CA USA!